Whereby the Responsible Entity is satisfied that:

- a. the investor has experienced hardship or is likely to experience hardship if the member is not allowed to withdraw; or
- b. the beneficiary of the estate of the member has experienced hardship or is likely to experience hardship if the member is not allowed to withdraw; or

The Responsible Entity must not allow a hardship withdrawal unless the responsible entity is satisfied that:

- i. any amount paid would not exceed the specific amount (of) the subject of a hardship withdrawal request in respect of the hardship of the member, instructor or beneficiary; and
- ii. the withdrawal amount will not exceed the member's hardship withdrawal cap amount (maximum 4 withdrawals per calendar year, up to maximum $100,000 per calendar year).

Whereby a decision by the Responsible Entity to allow withdrawal on hardship grounds is based on the following criteria

1. Where the amount requested is needed to enable the person to meet reasonable and immediate living expenses for themselves and/or their dependents; or
2. Where the person has not been in gainful employment for a period of at least 3 months and has no other means of financial support (except government assistance, such as unemployment benefits); or
3. Where the amount requested is needed by the person (and/or the person's dependant)
 - a. To help pay for medical costs (and transport costs) required to treat a life-threatening illness or injury, to alleviate acute or chronic pain, or to alleviate an acute or chronic mental disturbance where 2 registered medical practitioners (at least one of whom must be a specialist) have provided certified statements confirming the medical condition to this effect); or
 - b. To fund specific modification (to the principal place of residence or vehicle) that are necessary to accommodate special needs arising from a severe disability; or
 - c. To assist with funeral and other expenses related to the death of the person or the person's dependants; or
 - d. To enable the person to provide care for another person who is dying from a terminal illness, including home care; or
 - e. To meet a binding financial obligation entered into by the person prior to the responsible entity determining that withdrawals should be suspended; or
 - f. To meet expenses in other cases consistent with grounds mentioned in paragraphs a-e above;

And

4. Where the person does not otherwise have the financial capacity to meet the expense
